BURNED TO DEATH.

A Fatal Accident Near Church Hill.

A colored girl named Mittie Moss, living at Mr. J. W. Hanbery's, near Church Hill, a few miles from this city, was burned to death on the night of the 25th inst. She was in a cabin alone with a colored infant, which was in the cradle. While standing near the fire her clothing caught on fire and quickly set fire to the bed-clothes in the child's cradle. The girl, with her clothing in flames, had presence of mind enough to put out the flames in the cradle and by the time she had succeeded in doing this every vestige of her own apparel had been burned off. Wrapping herself in her mother's residence, she ran 400 yards to the residence of Mr. Hanbery and gave an account of the affair. She then returned to the cabin and died a short while thereafter. The girl was about 12 years of age.

Two Votes in Reach.

A shrewd Democratic observer of events said to-day: "There is a chance for the Democrats to get control of the senate of the fiftieth congress by a coup d'etat which is perfectly legitimate. Last winter the Republicans in the senate were so anxious to have Dakota admitted as a state that they made overtures to Senator Voorhees, whose son is a delegate from Washington Territory. The purpose was to win over Democratic opposition to Dakota by conceding Washington Territory's claim to admission at the same time. Dakota is overwhelming Republican, while Washington, it was believed, could eventually be wrested from the Democrats. Acting on this belief, the Republican senate passed bills admitting both Dakota and Washington. The state of Washington would send two Democratic senators here at once. The senate bills admitting both are now upon the house calendar. A Democratic house would only follow precedents in taking party advantage of the situation by passing the Washington bill in the coming short session and finding a pretext to leave the Dakota bill on the calendar. The territory which Republican shrewdness reckoned on as at least a debatable ground has been carried for the Democrats and Delegate Voorhees by an increased majority. The machinery necessary for forming the state government and electing the United States senators can be put into operation very soon. By the time the next congress meets two Democratic senators from the state of Washington can be in the city of Washington ready to vote with their party. The senate would stand Democrats, thirty-nine; Republicans, thirty-nine; that is if the wild Riddolborger and the nursery Van Wyck can be kept in the Republican line, which is exceedingly doubtful."—Missouri Republican.

Tobacco Warehousemen of Clarksville insert an advertisement in this issue. The firm succeeds the old firm of Herndon, Young & Co., that has been so well and favorably known to the farmers of the adjacent section, and none of the firm's old strength is lost by the admission of Mr. Hallums, who is a man of experience and ability as a tobaccoist. Mr. T. P. Major, one of the younger members, has lost none of his interest in the welfare of the farmer, and always makes it pleasant as well as profitable to all those who entrust their tobacco to the Grange Warehouse. The number of hogheads sold by this firm increase every year, which bears evidence of its growing popularity among the planters.

The firm succeeds the old firm of Herndon, Young & Co., that has been so well and favorably known to the farmers of the adjacent section, and none of the firm's old strength is lost by the admission of Mr. Hallums, who is a man of experience and ability as a tobaccoist. Mr. T. P. Major, one of the younger members, has lost none of his interest in the welfare of the farmer, and always makes it pleasant as well as profitable to all those who entrust their tobacco to the Grange Warehouse. The number of hogheads sold by this firm increase every year, which bears evidence of its growing popularity among the planters.

Meers, Herndon, Hallums & Co.

Tobacco Warehousemen of Clarksville insert an advertisement in this issue. The firm succeeds the old firm of Herndon, Young & Co., that has been so well and favorably known to the farmers of the adjacent section, and none of the firm's old strength is lost by the admission of Mr. Hallums, who is a man of experience and ability as a tobaccoist. A Tribute to the Memory of a Friend.

Mrs. F. Jennie Bush died Sunday, Nov. 14. Had she lived until the 25th of this month, she would have been 23 years of age. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. R. S. Gary, of this county, and was married to Mr. C. H. Bush, May 5, 1880. At sixteen she joined the Baptist church, of which she remained a consistent member until the day she was so suddenly called from earth. Death has invaded a happy home in our midst and taken from it a loving wife and a devoted mother. It has taken from her parents their first born; from brothers and sisters an affectionate elder sister; and from a large circle of relatives and friends it has removed a gentle, loved friend, who will ever be sadly missed. In all the relations of life she was the same quiet, modest, gentle woman. While she was an orphan to society, she possessed in a remarkable degree those admirable qualities of head and heart which render a true woman capable of making home the most attractive place on earth to her husband and children. Nor did she fail to recognize the solemn responsibility of training her children. Often has her little boy recited to us Bible stories which mama taught him. Alas! no longer will those dear little ones be guided by a mother's hand! No longer will her husband be welcomed at his home by her, who was the light of it! We tender him our heart felt sympathy, yet we feel it can little avail one so sorely bereft. We will cherish her memory, feeling that "The love which survives the tomb is one of the noblest attributes of the soul."

"What little narrow thought alone, To wait Thy purpose understood."

ONE WHO LOVES HER.

Hunting Party Returned.

The party of hunters headed by Capt. S. R. White, who went to Arkansas to hunt, have returned here. The following gentlemen composed the party, viz:

S. R. White and J. R. Candler, Newcastle; Geo. M. Hart and P. J. Glass, Hopkinsville; Lyman McCombs, Pembroke; Ansteth Peay, Garrettsburg; Ed. Druce, Henry Druce and J. S. Parrish, Clarksville; H. H. Bryant, Bellview, and T. P. Burke, New York. The party carried with them five negroes, 32 hounds, 16 head of stock, 2 wagons, 5 tents and 20 gallons of make-bite antidotes. The time out was 18 days and the number of deer killed was 11, an average of one to each member of the party. Esq. Peay had the best luck, killing three. Geo. Hart killed one of the biggest of the bucks. The point where the camp was located was near Claiborne, Ark., between the
